Steampunk Necklace with Tara Leclair

- 1 chain any color, with any shaped link, but must be 1/2 in. or larger for the link. Length is up to you, but if 18 in. or shorter, you will need a lobster claw or toggle closure. Michaels and AC Moore sell chains and closures. Home Depot, Lowe's, and most hardware stores sell larger link and heavier chains in different colors and finishes. These heavier chains can be tied with a ribbon for closure or some other type of twine.
- 22 or 20 gauge jewelry wire for wire wrapping, any color or metal. If in doubt, thicker is better than thinner (lower gauge is thicker).
- Assorted materials for hanging, such as: pieces of ribbon, screws, nuts, bolts, wooden matches, washers, old pencils, safety pins, Bobby pins, bottle caps, spools, buttons, straws, any small hardware, washers, twine, rubber bands, watch parts, dried nuts, small toys (i.e. Monopoly pieces), zippers, pieces of chains, single earrings, small rocks or stones, keychains, etc. Picking personal items such as pieces of broken jewelry will make the piece extra special and add meaning. Think creatively and look around your house for bits and pieces of things.
